

Press Release

24th International Trade Fair
New Munich Trade Fair
09–12 November 2010

Metallux at electronica 2010: hall A2, stand 216

Korb, Germany, 2010-9-15

Metallux AG based in Korb nearby Stuttgart present their entire product range at the electronica 2010 in Munich. The creative think tank of Korb exhibits apart from their standard range also innovative products from the foil sensor and joysticks range as well as custom designed applications and solutions.

Visit Metallux AG in hall A2, stand 216. A presentation well worth seeing. On display are applications of our magnetic foil sensor MMP as well as various application possibilities from our extensive joystick range.

Press Release

24th International Trade Fair
New Munich Trade Fair
09–12 November 2010

Metallux at electronica 2010: hall A2, stand 216

About Metallux:

Metallux AG is a high performance manufacturer of electronic components produced in thick film technology. The German company boasts a vast variety of services and offers next to their standard program of pressure-linear and rotative as well as foil sensors, high voltage and brake resistors, also customspecific solutions including customising potentiometers and joysticks. A strong customer orientation coupled with ideas and solutions makes for satisfied customers. Innovative products, a multitude of granted patents, long standing experience- numerous customers in the automotive industry, electrostatic-, medical- and industrial –electronic industries depend already for more than 24 years on the pioneering company Metallux.

For more information:

www.metallux.de

PR contact:

Metallux AG
Anja Puttkammer
Marketing & PR
Tel. 07151/93935 -14
Fax. 07151/93935-3
anja.puttkammer@metallux.de